

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Returned From Colorado.
Mrs. James Thomas and little son, who have been visiting in Colorado, have returned from Fairmont, Colorado, where they have been since July the guests of their hosts, Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Christie, who have a summer cottage there. Dr. and Mrs. Christie will return home within a few weeks.

Auxiliary to Meet.
The Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Episcopal church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hinds. Those attending from Fairmont will take the 2:45 car to Pennock Farm.

For Rev. Mitchell.
Honoring their pastor Rev. B. J. Mitchell, the congregation of the First Methodist Protestant church will entertain at a reception tonight to which members of the congregation are invited. The hour is 7:45.

For Normal Students.
The congregation of the First Baptist church will entertain normal school students at a reception at the school on Tuesday night.

Returned From Motoring Trip.
Frank Kelley and sister, Miss Ruth, returned home last evening from a two day motoring trip to points in Ohio. They spent some time with relatives at Jackson Center. O. Mr. Kelley went on there by rail to his former home at Shelbyville, Mo.

Left for Convention.
Jennie Engle, vice president of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. J. Welter, secretary of the Union left for morning via Moundsville for Parkersburg and tonight will attend the five session of the State Board. Anna Lowe Yost, state president of the Y. W. C. A., left for Parkersburg accompanied there this morning by S. Hess and Mrs. P. B. Swearing. They will leave for Parkersburg at the convention which convenes Thursday.

Editorial Comment
Current Subjects

ECONOMIC SAFETY
The American Economist.
A less discussion of an under- condition is occupying much in the columns of Free-Trade papers. They are worrying over what is going to happen when the trade, and with its close shall the enforcement of the economic of the Allies against the coun- which they are now fighting. Out, except these Free-Trade can see no solution of the problems confronting the United States other than a persistence in present policy of near Free-Trade. Under the prospect of a to Protection. They see in the great danger of irritating designers into the enforcement of reprisals which will be had to foreign trade. Free-Traders always been frightened at this hobgoblin. Invariably they have retailed retaliation and trade wars as sure consequence of Protection. American labor and industry by Tariff duties. Of course, none these predictions has ever come. On the contrary, our foreign has always been at its best. Protection. We have bought from foreigners because Pro- prosperity gave our people the purchasing power, and we have had more to foreign countries the of the healthier condition of industries.
Recent discussion of future condi- and policies, growing out of the used economic alliance in Europe seem to be premature. We can afford to wait to cross that bridge we come to it. The only things far definitely determined as fear of the economic program of the are, first, that Great Britain ready abandoned Free-Trade and adopt Protection as a national and, second, that the Allies enforce discriminating Tariffs on exports from their present countries, while granting low- to the allied countries and to countries. This much may be as certain.
It is pointed that the Tariffs affect- ports from allied countries will ver than those affecting equivalent- imports from neutral countries. is far from having been adopt- a part of the program of the ionic alliance. It is, we believe, improbable that any such Tr- discrimination will occur. Great for example, is not likely to a higher Tariff on wheat from United States than on wheat from To so discrimination against United States would be to invite a retaliation which none allied countries could well af- The United States, with Pro- in control of the govern- could quickly find the way to prevent such discrimina-event, however, that our government—turned over- onist control as the re- year's campaign—could not be content with unfair Tar- the part of any or an countries, such as effectively met ment of the fol- program.
Protective Tar- in its appl- duties so Tariff dis- all re- cal prohibi- isly enforce- countries.
existing "fav-

For Mrs. Watson.
Mrs. Henry Watson gave a recep- tion Saturday afternoon from three until five o'clock at her home on West Main street for her granddaughter, Mrs. James Edwin Watson, Jr., of Fairmont. In the receiving line were Mrs. Watson and Miss Agnes Hood, whose marriages will be social events of this month. Mrs. Benjamin R. Blackford of Parkersburg, daughter of Mrs. Watson and mother of Mrs. Watson; Mrs. Clifton Comly of Cleve- land, O.; and Miss Sue Kearsley Wat- son of Fairmont.

In keeping with the autumnal sea- son, the rooms were decorated in golden red and fall roses. In the dining room where less were served, brides roses, white asters and maidens hair ferns formed the table's centerpiece. Mrs. Albert W. Rapp presided at the coffee table.

The aides were Mrs. aird B. Carper, Miss Florence Jackson, Miss Elsie Gibson, Miss Virginia Davis, Miss Roberta Fleming of Fairmont, Miss Mil- dred Lamberd and Miss Frances Cur- tin.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. James E. Watson and Miss Sue K. Watson, Mrs. Clarence Watson, Mrs. A. Brooks Fleming, Mrs. Walter Stockley, Miss Maria Hare, Mrs. James O. Watson, the Misses Haymond, the Misses Ida and Lucy Watson, Mrs. Robert Fleming, the Misses May and Roberta Fleming, Mrs. Fay Hartley, Mrs. DeBolt, Mrs. Virginia Fleming, all of Fairmont; Mrs. Maryville S. Jarvis of Fort Leavenworth, Kan.; Miss Mattie Watson of Des Moines, Ia.; Mrs. Chas. Abel, Miss Helen Johnston of Canton, O., and Mrs. Gallahey of Charleston. — Parkersburg State Journal.

Left for Mercersburg, Pa.
Mrs. Francis E. Nichols and daughter Miss Mary Louise Nichols left on Saturday in the latter's runabout for Frostburg, Md., enroute to Mercersburg, Pa., where they will attend the marriage of Miss Marguerite Kendrick and Mr. Arthur Field Humphrey which event will be solemnized October 7 in the Presbyterian church. Miss Nichols will be held of honor to the bride, who was a school mate at the Walnut Lane Sch-Walnut Lane school, Philadelphia, and has been a frequent guest at the Nichols home. Mrs. Nichols and Miss Nicholson spent Sunday in Frostburg, Md., with Mrs. Herman Hesse formerly of this city.

Left for School.
Miss Mildred Haymond left last night for New York where she will attend the Mary Mount school for young ladies at Tarry Town on the Hudson. Miss Amelia Bennett who with her mother, Mrs. John R. Bennett has spent the last week in Philadelphia will join Mrs. Haymond in New York and will enter Mary Mount school. Mrs. Bennett will spend a few weeks at Tarrytown.

MONONGAH

Teams Selected
The various teams for the Monongah Bowling league have been selected as follows: Outlaws—Roy Addis, James Mike, John Abercrombie, Captain; Bucks—Cleve Schultz, captain; John Tufton, J. R. Lake; Reds—Lee N. Satterfield, captain; James Price, Carrel Curry; Cubs—Mike Dickler, captain; W. I. Shaver, A. D. Ireland; Browns—Harold Fortney, captain; William Santee, George Hall; Pirates—Howard Fleming, captain; Ira Nichols, Dick Talbot; Tigers; C. McDonnell, captain; Patsy Pelligrini, Clyde Satterfield; Yankees—P. D. Burton, captain; Ben Holbert, William Myers; Braves—Herbert Spragg, captain; Chester Pyles, Patsy McDonnell; Giants—William Fleming, captain; Morris Silverman, Clarence Spragg. The officers are Harold Fortney, president, and L. N. Satterfield, treasurer.

Entertained Friends
During the week Mrs. Harrison Martin entertained a number of friends at her home in this town. Among the features of the program were several musical selections by Miss Goldie Groves and Miss Nettie Martin.

PERSONALS
Misses Niel Barker and Carrie Smith were among the social callers in Fairmont yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Hermione Helmick, of Fairmont, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Lee N. Satterfield, yesterday. Miss Opal Findley, of Burnsville, a student in the Fairmont Normal, was calling with friends here Saturday. Harry Shaver, Fred Cochran and Norman Myers were calling in Fairmont Sunday evening.

Mrs. James Deegan, of Grafton, was a visitor in Monongah Saturday.

Bert Durbin, of Morgantown, was a social caller with friends here during the week-end.

Price Smith, of Boothsville, was a visitor with local friends Sunday.

Eugene Orr was among the out-of-town callers to Fairmont Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hew Davis were calling with relatives in West Chester Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mar Satterfield were calling with friends and relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. George Nelson was a business visitor to Monongah during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snyder of Wat- son, were visiting relatives here during the week-end.

Miss Bryant of Seattle, has won recognition as aviator, bronco buster and boxer and now is going in for professional deep sea diving. She is just out of her teens. She will open offices in New York.

Entertained at Club.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Brooks Fleming, Jr., entertained at a bridge dinner at the Country Club Saturday night, the guests including members of the Thursday Bridge Club. Mrs. Henry S. Lively won honors for the highest scores among the women guests and Mr. Lively captured the high score prize in the men's contest. George E. DeBolt won the visitors honor.

At Pastor's Home.
The Young Ladies Aid Society of the M. P. Temple will meet this evening at the home of the pastor Dr. J. C. Broomfield and wife on Fourth street. Members are urged to be present.

Fortney-Jones.
Miss Olive Jones and Mr. Lloyd Fort- ney both of this city were united in marriage Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Thos. K. Jones on Gaston avenue. Rev. C. C. Mitchell of the Central Christian church officiated at the marriage and informal reception followed. Mr. and Mrs. Fortney will reside here.

To Entertain Class.
Miss Sarah Hibbs will entertain the R. T. Webb class of the First M. E. church South tonight at her home on Walnut avenue. Members are urged to be present.

Entered School.
Miss Daisy Pollitt daughter of Rev. F. S. Pollitt has entered the Morris- Harvey college at Barbourville, W. Va. Basil Pollitt her brother has re- entered the University of Cincinnati at Cincinnati from which institution he will be graduated in June.

To Attend Meeting.
Mrs. W. H. Brand, Mrs. Maggie Wil- son, Miss Nina Ridenour and Mrs. Ora Fleming will attend the state conven- tion of the Order of the Eastern Star which convenes in Clarksburg tomor- row.

Left for Pittsburgh.
Mrs. W. J. Wiegand and daughter Miss Mary Moulds Hurst left yesterday for Pittsburgh where the latter will enter on her junior year at the Winchester school. They were accompanied to Pittsburgh by the former's mother and sister, Mrs. William Moulds and Mrs. Mary Shallenberger who had been her guests here for several weeks.

Sandy in Doubt.
Sentry (to McDougal, returning from wedding festivities)—"Pass, friend, all's well." McDougal—"Thank ye, lad- die. But ye dinna ken the gud wife or ye wouldna be so sure."—London Opin- ion.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Dancing Opportunity
Miss Netta Friedman will conduct private lessons in dancing at her home on 311 Maple avenue. Special attention will be given on Saturday afternoon to school children. Phone today 255 R Bell. —Adv't.

Resinol
heals

itching skins

When you know physicians have pre- scribed Resinol for 20 years in the treat- ment of itching, burning, unsightly skin eruptions, and have written thousands of reports such as: "It is my regular prescription for itching," "Resinol has produced brilliant results," and "The result it gave was marvelous in one of the worst cases of eczema," doesn't it make you say to yourself, "that's the right kind of treatment for my skin-trouble?" Resinol is sold by all druggists.

Notice of Closing Hours

The Store will remain open daily now until 5:30 p. m., Sat- urdays, 10 p. m. Store open every morning at 8 o'clock.

This Is Piece Goods Week

And for this week we will have on Special display all the New Piece Goods Patterns in the Dress Goods Section, 1st floor, and the Domestic Department, 3rd floor Annex

America has gained the leadership in the production of piece goods. Never has as beautiful patterns, as exquisite and practical fabrics been produced as are now shown by our manufacturers. To properly present these new goods to you we have arranged a week of special display in all departments devoted to piece goods.

Silks, Silk and Wool Dress Goods Suitings, Coatings, Wash Fabrics and White Goods

Each department will exhibit its newest patterns and fabrics, with suggestions as to how the materials can be made into garments.

Fall's Smartest Dress Goods

In the Showing of New Suits
Fine silks are beautiful at all times, but you must see the display in our Silk Section to realize the fullness of their charm. In this showing are all the new and fashionable silks of the season—all weaves, all colors, all shades of colors. Not to mention an unusual collection of striped and plaid silks in various color combinations. Prices $1.25 to $2.50 a yard. First Floor.

Broadcloths Are Foremost Among the Wool Dress Goods Showing

Furs are one of the reasons, because the richness of furs and the elegance of broadcloth naturally go together. There is a truly remarkable assortment here and many beautiful new colors, light and dark, and all the other shades anybody is likely to want. Prices $2.00 and $2.50; 50 inches wide. Besides here is full assortment of French serge in all colors, 46 and 50 inches wide, at $1.25 to $1.65. And plaid suitings and plaid coatings in beautiful color combinations at 75c to $2.50 a yard. First Floor.

Cotton Piece Goods Show

In the Domestic Department there is probably as large a collection of materials of fine standard quality as you are likely to find in large city department stores. Every piece of goods shown here is dependable, well chosen and priced lower than such good qualities usually sell for.

You will find—
Ginghams, 10c to 25c a yard.
Dress Linens, 40c to $1.00 yd.
Flannelettes, 12½c to 20c a yard.
Duckling Fleece, 18c a yard.
Figured Sateens, 35c a yard.
Plisse Crepes, 20c to 25c a yard.
Lace Curtains, $1.00 to $6.00 a pair.
Irish Point Curtains, $4.50 to $10 a pair.
Ripple Curtains, 50c to $1.50 a pair. Third Floor.

STYLISH SHOES
Our shoes are enjoying a great vogue among the correctly attired women of today who wear them because they are graceful, smart and a step ahead of any others in individuality and elegance. There are many styles and colors to select from and everybody is pretty sure of a perfect fit because of our enormous stock. Prices run $4.00 to $8.00. Also, in the Children's Shoe Section, are great assortments of styles and sizes, and all are scientifically made to give comfort to little growing feet. Children's shoes are $1.50 to $3.50. First Floor.

A Warm Welcome from the New Plaid Blankets

People like these plaid blankets because the unite practical service giving qualities with a daintiness and individuality that is quite pleas- ing. Blue and white, pink and white, gray and white and other pleasing colors. Cotton Blankets, $1.00 to $5.00. Wool Blankets, $2.75 to $15.00. Third Floor Annex.

Women's Coats, Suits, Dresses for Every Taste

Hundreds now to choose from; the Fall collections are at their height and there is something new and lovely for every taste. Please note the particular pains that have been taken to have them rightly tailored and correct in color and fabric.

COATS—The new models are simply enchanting. Large cape collars that can be worn high on the neck; and that full sweep- ing effect from the shoulder to hem gives grace and dash seldom experienced in coat fashions. But you must see them to appre- ciate their real smartness. Prices run from $6.75 to $115.00.

SUITS—Splendid new fashions in lustrous broadcloth, velour, gabardine, serge and poplin, in colors, green, brown, blue, plum, taupe and black, are priced $18.25, $25.00 and $29.50.

Many handsome and very exclusive mod- els, with beautiful fur trimmings run any- where from $25 up to $89.50.

DRESSES—Serge is the leading fabric in women's new Fall dresses—and they are such practical, wearable dresses that it is little wonder for their vogue. Most of these dresses come in plaided styles, with bead- ing or embroidery for trimming. The colors are blue, black, green and brown, and, in- cluding light weight jersey cloth dresses, the prices run from $6.75 to $25. A splendid assortment between $6.75 and $15.00. Second Floor.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE